CONFERENCES

Summer school on Statistical Physics of Machine Learning, August 2-28, 2020, Les Houches, France,

This is the announcement and call for applications for the school "Statistical physics of machine learning" that will take place in Les Houches, France during August 2-28, 2020. Please help us spread the information by forwarding this to your outstanding postdocs/students that may be interested. Students, postdocs and young researchers interested to participate in the event are invited to apply on the website <http://leshouches2020.krzakala.org/> before March 15, 2020."
